

Your local tube producer in the US

Your partner for pharmaceutical and cosmetic packaging

Produce your tubes locally! As of the beginning of spring 2019, Neopac has opened the doors to a tube manufacturing facility in Wilson, North Carolina. This enables shorter lead times for U.S.-based customers and reduced transportation distances for increased efficiency and sustainability.

Your experts

Want to join the team? Check out our open positions!

Highest quality standards

- Proud member of the US tube council
- GMP Production
- ISO Certified Clean Room
- FDA approved packaging
- Low Migration Decoration
- Materials adhere with US Drug Master File
- Tubes can be sterilized
- Polyfoil MMB tube meets APR Critical Guidance

Member of the US tube council

Need a contract filler for small tubes?

We are happy to connect you with our American network of small tube contract fillers that are used to fill and seal our tubes. Be it for liquids, animal health, cosmetics, pharmaceuticals or even aseptic fillers.

Sustainable Beauty Packaging

Watch Iza Londono share exclusive insights on how we combine premium design with recyclability in this Beauty Packaging interview.